VACOS MALCOLM is a music project created by Łukasz Zieliński (VACOS) and William Malcolm (NIGHTRUN87).

VACOS - first appeared on the electronic music scene in 2004, He is a DJ, producer and event organiser and for the past 10 years the owner of the legendary Sfinks700 venue in Sopot. He is also the founder and co-organiser of the Wisłoujście Festival - the largest Polish electronic music festival focused on presenting only Polish producers and musicians.

NIGHTRUN87 - (Neo 80's / Synthpop / Synthwave) is a one man live act created by William Malcolm - an American-British vocalist, musician, producer and composer living in Poland.

From 2009 to 2017 they performed under the name Vacos & Billy Savage (House / Electro / Live Act). In 2017 they changed their name to VACOS MALCOLM and started creating, producing and performing original material. The unique, hard-hitting sound of Vacos Malcolm is the product of hundreds of hours spent at the studio. Years of experience of both artists did not go unnoticed by the biggest music festivals in Poland - Audioriver and Open'er Festival - who booked their performance even before they released their debut album!
