

Warsaw duo RYSY is formed by producers Wojtek Urbański and Łukasz Stachurko. Their music is a resultant of progressive dance rhythms built on the basis of melancholic yet catchy melodies.

The premiere of their debut single „Ego” (with a guest appearance by Justyna Swies) took place on May 4, 2015, and already on September 4 the debut longplay „Traveler” was released, followed by the „Father” EP containing the songs „Father” and „Crystal Love.” The premiere of their debut single „Ego” (with a guest appearance by Justyna Swies) took place on May 4, 2015, and already on September 4 the debut longplay „Traveler” was released, followed by the „Father” EP containing the songs „Father” and „Crystal Love.”

Since its inception, the band has focused heavily on concert activity. The duo played at Poland’s largest festivals (including Open’er Festival, Tauron Nowa Muzyka, Audioriver and Off Festival). and the concert lineup was often expanded to include vocalists who appeared on the „Traveler” album (Justyna Święs, Baasch and Piotr Ziółka).

RYSY quickly gained recognition in the world of Polish alternative music. In 2016, the duo was awarded the „Discovery of the Year” statuette by Muno magazine, „Band of the Year” by Aktivist magazine (the Night Brands poll) and a nomination for the Fryderyk Award in the „Debut of the Year” category. Despite these successes, the band suspended its activities on January 30, 2017.

The reactivation came on December 31, 2020 with the release of the single „4GET” - the title track from the album, which was released in spring 2021 by Dyspensa Records. The album was enthusiastically received by fans and the music industry as a consequence of which RYSY received the Fryderyk Award in the „Electronic Music” category as well as the „Band of the Year” and „Song of the Year” awards given by Muno magazine. In the fall of 2023, the band released the dance EP „Harpa” made a live recording in Iceland and embarked on a club tour selling out the most prestigious venues in Poland.

In the summer of 2024, the band plans to release an EP announcing their third studio album, which will be released at the end of the year.
