

TACET is a new original project by Wojtek Urbański. The winner of the Fryderyk Award for the album „4GET” with the band RYSY, Wojtek now showcases a new, dark, rave-oriented side of his work in his solo project. He describes the project as follows: „TACET is a summary of all my experiences with club music.”

Wojtek Urbański is one of the most renowned composers and music producers in the country. He received the Polish Soundtrack of the Year award at the 2022 Film Music Festival for the soundtrack to the film „Operation Hyacinth”. He served as the music director for the 2021 Empik Bestseller Gala and the „Together with Ukraine” concert for TVN. He is also a film music composer, known for works such as „Infamia” and „Ultraviolet”. His club tracks have frequently illustrated films by Jan Komasa, including „The Hater” and the Oscar-nominated „Corpus Christi”.
